Hello Gandhi,

How are you struggling on with the job without a true British white man to help you? Bet it's not easy! All you Pakistani's are the same - take credit for the work of the white male.

Eric.

Rob,

I'm bloody sick of asking you for that £20 back - if I don't get it within the next week there'll be trouble. I don't care how tough you think you are - you don't frighten me. Just cough up or else.

Eric.
